

Getting to The Aurrie in Lower Largo from Leven railway station

Walking: 4 kms (about 1 hour) - - - - -

Walk down to the sea-front and follow the promenade east past the caravan park. Continue using the beach all the way to Lower Largo, at high tides use the Fife Coastal Path just above the high water mark beside the golf courses. Beware golf balls, and be courteous of golfers! Once in Lower Largo cross the bridge at the harbour and continue along Main Street.

Cycling: 5 kms (about 20 minutes) - - - - -

Cycle down to the sea-front and follow the promenade east. Near the end follow the cycle-path signs north and pick up the path to Silverburn. From Silverburn leave the car-park by the gate at its south east corner. Go south for c100m then follow the track east through the golf course. Beware golf balls, and be courteous of golfers! Once in Lower Largo cross the bridge at the harbour and continue along Main Street and you'll find us easy enough.

By bus: 10 minutes (about every ½ hour)

Follow the signs to Leven bus station and take the x60, x58 or 95 bus going east. Get off in Lundin Links or Lower Largo at the harbour. From the harbour continue east along Main Street.
